THE WASHINGTON POST
A 8 Sunday, Aug. 27, 1967

Salinger, Others Open Nightclub

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Aug. 26 (AP)—Pierre Salinger's newest fling is a discotheque nightclub opening tonight.

It's a "members only" club called The Facotry. About 600 persons already joined, Salinger said. A lifetime membership costs $500 with monthly dues of $15.

The one-time presidential press secretary said he has been joined in the venture by entertainers Peter Lawford, Sammy Davis Jr., Paul Newman and Anthony Newley, in addition to four Los Angeles businessmen.

"I'm one of the non-talented members," Salinger said.